VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

Our Vision: Be my Disciples. If not you, then who...

Our Mission: St. Mary's by the Sea, a Catholic community of faith, hope, and love, journeying together in the spirit of stewardship, unity, and charity, embracing all in Christ under the mantle of "Our Lady."

Reflections of the Week

How do we experience death in our lives? Obviously, we will experience it when we die, but we also encounter it when someone close to us dies, for a part of us dies as well. We die a little when we sustain a trauma or are dealt a setback we cannot overcome, especially if we lose heart or lose hope. We may feel dead when we do something we know is wrong, when we realize we've turned our back on God's love. It is then that we need to hear Jesus' words to Jairus: "Do not be afraid; just have faith" (Mark 5:36). Jesus has defeated death in all its forms and restored life, life that overcomes death. In any circumstance, may we recognize God's healing love and mercy.

Both Jairus and the woman with hemorrhages take a courageous step in today's Gospel. They both fall on their knees before Jesus, pleading for his healing touch. Each is just desperate enough to do so. Jairus's daughter is near death. The woman has an untreatable illness. Jairus is a synagogue official, a public figure, well-known enough to be mentioned by name, taking a risk that he might lose his position after publicly turning to Jesus. We know the woman does not want to make her request openly, but when Jesus asks, she acknowledges her actions, despite her fear and trembling. Jesus commends their faith, which they have courageously confessed, which has saved them.

As he later did when Lazarus was already in the tomb, Jesus shows that death is not what those without faith think it is. Reminiscent of the naysayers in the story of Lazarus, the people who come out of the house report that the child is dead and that Jairus should leave Jesus alone. After all, death is final and absolute. There is nothing anyone can do. This, of course, is not how Jesus sees death. As Wisdom implies, God made humans and death incompatible. Jesus defeated death once and for all. Today we see that foreshadowed. Though both Lazarus and Jairus's daughter eventually died, we trust that neither of them ever truly tasted death, for Jesus brought them life.

Question of the Week

How does my faith affect the way I anticipate death? How can it increase my courage? How can I encourage others to keep the faith?

Standing for Life: A Divine Mandate

"God did not make death ...for he fashioned all things that they might have being." This statement not only reveals God's nature but also mandates his people to oppose death and promote life. The Gospel's account of Jesus raising a dead girl isn't just a historical event but a call for us to build a Culture of Life. One might wonder why Jesus didn't perform such miracles more often. His miracles were signs of his mission's purpose: reconciling humanity to God and destroying the source of death. Ultimately, all will rise, but they must first come to Christ, who is Life itself.

Therefore, the pro-life movement is more than a reaction to bad policy; it is a response to Jesus Christ. God has destroyed death through Christ, and to follow Christ is to champion life and oppose all that destroys it. Abortion, which takes more lives than anything else, is a critical focus in this mission.

Office of Faith Formation

Do you know that St. Therese wrote a poem about the Sacred Heart of Jesus? She wrote this poem in 1895 at the request of her sister, Marie of the Sacred Heart. Here is an excerpt:

O Heart of Jesus, treasure of tenderness,
 You Yourself are my happiness, my only hope.
 You who knew how to charm my tender youth,
 Stay near me till the last night.
 Lord, to you alone I've given my life,
 And all my desires are well known to you.
 It's in your ever-infinite goodness
 That I want to lose myself, O Heart of Jesus!
